Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. A good advertisement "notifies" free any more than a merchant's use of his counter. The gift of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

We Have So Many Good Things

In our different lines to show you that we cannot call your attention to all of them in this ad. We will name a few of our leaders that we want you to call for and judge their merits:

First—Our New Covert Cloth English Top Coats, a very swell garment, exclusively confined to us. Prices range from $10 to $22.50.

Second—Our Custom-Made English Cheviot and Scotch Wool Suits.

We have them in the very latest designs, both cut and style of cloth. This line we think the greatest we ever had. You will think so, too, when you see it. They range in price

From $9 to $25.

Third—Our Clay Worsted Suits

Are the best values imaginable. We bought them long before the tariff bill went into effect, and are enabled to sell them at much less than the manufacturers can make them for now. They range in price

From $7.50 to $20.

The latter price represents our custom-made, and would cost you $35 elsewhere.

The Smith & Stoughton

SHOES

Will soon be as well known here as Hechinger & Co.'s Clothing. We need not go into details about them. Look at our window display; it tells the story. Although but a few days in the men's shoe business, the reputation of our footwear has gone abroad to the extent of keeping our shoe department clerk and assistant busy all day last Saturday. Come in and try on a pair of them. Respectfully,

CHILDREN AT SCHOOL.

Ran it in, Oren it in.
Children's heads are hollow;
Slam it in, Jam it in,
Still there's more to follow;
Hiss and hiss, hiss and hiss,
Astronomic mystery,
Algebra, history,
Latin, etymology,
Botany, geometry,
Greek and trigonometry,
Ham it in, Oren it in,
Children's heads are hollow.

Sold it in, mould it in,
All that they can swallow;
Foid it in, hold it in,
Still there's more to follow;
Faces pinched and pale,
Tall the same snoring
Till of moments robbed from sleep,
Meals untasted, studies deep;
Those who've passed the furrow through
With aching brow will tell to you

How the teacher crammed it in,
Rammed it in, jammed it in,
Crushed it in, punched it in,
Rubbed it in, clubbed it in,
Pressed it in and caressed it in,
Rapped it in and slapped it in,
When their heads were hollow.

The Democracy of That Balliwick All Torn Up Over the Clerkship Race.

MYERS, Ky., Sept. 28, 1897.

Editor Ledger: The Democratic Committee met at Carlisle on Monday and held Saturday, October 9th, as the time to hold a primary to nominate a candidate for County Court Clerk, to fill the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of John A. Campbell.

A half dozen candidates are pressing for the nomination, and the bitter feeling already existing between the various would be leaders, as a relic of the late primary, promises to develop what may prove a permanent disruption of the party ere the din of battle is over. Surmises of deals and trickery and mutterings of discontent are floating about on the surface, and many heretofore loyal Democrats are becoming disgusted with the "Kilken ny" that has developed and have upped their minds to vote for the Republican nominee.

Meanwhile the Republicans are viewing the situation with suppressed satisfaction, and their chances of success in November are daily growing "beautifully larger."

Keep your weather eye on Nicholas. "For something is going to drop."

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.

After Traveling Several Thousand Miles Through the South He Reaches and Likes Mayville.

Mayville, Ky., Sept. 30th, 1897.

Editor Public Ledger. The writer has been lately traveling several thousand miles, and in passing through the busy and beautiful city of Mayville, may be permitted a few words.

Have been over the Louisville and Nashville system from Cincinnati and St. Louis to New Orleans and Florida, to Norton, Va., and just now from Memphis by way of Louisville and Lexington here.

The drought is the same over all this territory, but the wheat and hay was made in time, and corn is good in places, but generally short.

Business appears to be improving everywhere. The L. and N. Railroad is in the best condition throughout its whole system, reaching through ten states. It connects at Memphis, Tenn., with the Cotton Belt line, which reaches as far as Galveston, Western Texas, and is now one of the longest and best lines of the Southwest, in excellent order and doing a great business.

No one can fail to admire the great state of Kentucky, and the city of Mayville is like a jewel in the crown of her surrounding hills, with your railroads and mighty river of commerce giving her more prosperity today than many of her sister cities.

PAUL BAGLEY.

The new location of Mrs. L. V. Davis is at 27 West Second street, Kichley Building, adjoining George Cox & Son, and there you will find the latest and the best in Millinery at the lowest prices.
